Lent 4.5 Christian Simplicity

Protecting God's Creation • Embracing Gospel Justice • Nurturing Spiritual Fulfillment

"What does the Lord require of you but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?"

– Micah 6:8

A 7-Week Program

Lent 4.5-Christian Simplicity is a 7-week program of conversion that educates Christian communities on issues of sustainability and Gospel justice, inspiring them to take practical steps to live more simply and care for God's creation by using only their fair share of the Earth's resources. It is structured around weekly themes which focus on various areas of consumption.

0. Week prior to Ash Wednesday – Introducing Lent 4.5
1. Ash Wednesday Week – Christian Simplicity: Compassionate Living
2. 1st Week of Lent – Food: Buying and Eating are Moral Acts
3. 2nd Week of Lent – Consumption: Buying Less, Wasting Less
4. 3rd Week of Lent – Water: Conserving and Protecting
5. 4th Week of Lent – Energy: Choosing Efficient and Clean
6. 5th Week of Lent – Transportation: Reducing Carbon Emissions
7. Holy Week – Gratitude and Generosity: Becoming Involved

Do more than give up chocolate this Lent.
Strive to live more simply,
protect creation and make justice flourish.

What People Are Saying

- "In Lent 4.5 we found a curriculum that would address spiritual needs by honoring not only our Creator, but also the world God created." – Rev. Patricia K. Tull, First Presbyterian Church, Jeffersonville, IN
- "Great material to help deepen our inner and outward expressions of Lent...a resource to challenge us to make our world a better, more peaceful place for all of God's creatures." – Community of Christ Church, Orange, CA
- "Everyone got more than they expected, and we are looking forward to putting changes into effect in the church and in our homes." – St. Paul United Methodist Church, Louisville, KY
- "Lent 4.5 changes hearts and minds. It was a great program of conversion for my church." – Rev. Tim Mitchell, Episcopal Church of the Advent
- "Thank you so much for developing Lent 4.5 as a spiritual program of stewardship and care of God's creation." – Archbishop Joseph Kurtz, D.D., Archdiocese of Louisville

4 Ways to Participate

1. Weekly Handouts / Bulletin Inserts (Set of 9)

Becoming Informed and Taking Action

Take-home materials are central to the program. Each weekly handout focuses the congregation on an area of consumption. It presents the church teachings, a menu of practical suggestions to abstain from over-consuming in that area, a reflective prayer, and suggestions for additional learning activities. Each handout educates your congregation, helps them understand how to reduce their consumptive patterns, and motivates them to embrace Christian simplicity. Handouts can be included in weekly church bulletins or distributed separately.

2. Discussion Courses: "Christian Simplicity"

Study Groups and Faith Sharing

Christian Simplicity: A Gospel Value is a 7-session course which enables faith sharing groups to have a more in-depth experience. This self-facilitating course is designed for 8-12 people to meet weekly for 1½ hours to pray, reflect, and discuss readings based on the weekly themes of Lent 4.5. The course book (125 pages) is a collection of essays, articles, book excerpts, prayer services, and discussion questions designed to create a lively interchange.

3. Online Resources

Going Deeper and Exploring Options

Members of your church will have access to practical guidance on how to implement the lifestyle changes they select and be able to expand their knowledge with the online resources at www.lent45.org.

4. Activities for Children

School Resource Book for Teachers

The school resource book helps teachers of grades K-8 address consumerism through age-appropriate curriculum guides. Children can begin to understand the impact of their purchasing habits, the problem with the consumer mentality, and the harmful impact consumerism has on God's creation, matters of justice, and their spiritual welfare.

Caring for creation and living more simply are essential for anyone following in the footsteps of Jesus today.
